

The Community Philanthropy Academy is designed to provide Iowa's community leaders with new concepts, best practice tools, networking opportunities, and policy updates to enhance the role of community foundations and county endowment funds in creating community vitality and quality of life

- Hear national perspectives on the latest developments and trends in community philanthropy
- Network and share ideas with other community philanthropy leaders from across the state
- Hear award winning success stories and best practices
- Discuss new and innovative strategies for building endowments to enhance community vitality and quality of life
- Learn about the purposes and best practices in strategic grant making for enhancing community vitality
- Discuss Iowa's new web site tools designed to enhance communication with local community foundation entities, collaborators, and the public
- Examine new tools for local discussion about the transfer of wealth and incentives for bequests and other planned giving instruments

A Catalyst for Creating Real Impact in Real Communities
